Public Comment on Agenda Items:

JJ Smith asked about the lottery for marijuana licenses and gave his opinion for a different selection process. Village Manager Sarratore explained the reason that selection process was chosen and would like to avoid any bias in the decision.

Managers Update (See Attachment 1)

Village Manager Sarratore informed Council that the Village received the Par Plan grant for rubber mulch, ADA ramp and rubber border to be placed at Clisbee Park.

Johnson asked for an update on the Parkshore Drive project and expressed that N. O’Keefe looks good. Village Manager Sarratore explained that it is scheduled to begin this fall.

Conner asked which plan was approved for the Viaduct. Village Manager Sarratore stated she would find the answer and get back to him.

Williams wanted to tell Superintendent Anderson that the children are enjoying the new park equipment. He also asked if N. O’Keefe will be affected by the fiber being brought to the downtown. Village Manager Sarratore stated it will not because the fiber is coming from the fairgrounds.

New Business

None.

Public Comment on Non-Agenda Items

Jim Bronke stated that things are looking good with the projects.

Adjournment:

President Johnson declared the meeting adjourned at 6:42 p.m. by unanimous agreement.
